Feel the Love....

Become a Chamber Ambassador!

Have you ever considered being a chamber ambassador and never took the next step? Is your company represented on the Chamber Ambassadors?

If not, we welcome you to check out the ambassadors by joining us at the February Ambassador meeting on

Feb. 1st at 11:30 a.m. at Christian Believer's at 5th and Main.

The Chamber's Ambassadors enjoy the rewards of making new contacts, strengthening relationships and accessing a wealth of information and resources. Their primary responsibilities are to assist at events, ribbon cuttings and other chamber celebrations, help in the retention of members and the recruitment of new members.

Join us for the City of Clovis Dog Park Ribbon Cutting

Monday, Feb. 6th at 12:30 p.m.
Hillcrest Park under the Arch
(10th and Sycamore)

DOGS WELCOME!

Leap into Profits:

Going Green for More Green in Your Pocket

Join us for an interactive workshop that introduces you to the main benefits of 'going green.' In our current economy, where are your opportunities for sustainable profits?...hint...they are often hiding in plain sight. From big picture concepts to practical ideas that you can use immediately, this workshop is designed to answer your questions, share your great ideas, and offer you powerful solutions. Bring your ideas and questions!

Topics include:

Green Office Ideas

- because we all have "An Office";

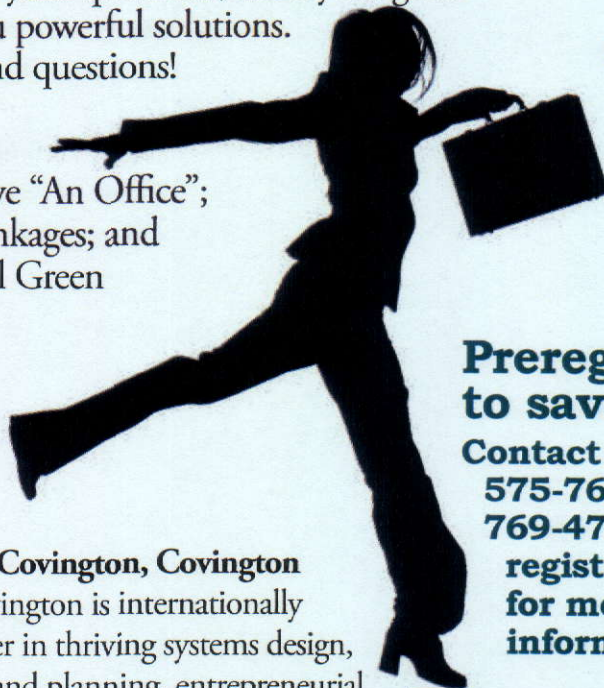

Efficiencies and Linkages; and

Discussion of Local Green

Business Support.

Attend to identify where you may be throwing away your profits!

Presented by: Margo Covington, Covington Consulting. Ms. Covington is internationally recognized as a pioneer in thriving systems design, quality management and planning, entrepreneurial coaching and green sustainability training and consulting.
