Carpe Diem String Quartet

A Classical String Quartet That Rocks!

Join the Series as we present a unique and exciting night of Chamber music, the Carpe Diem String Quartet, on Tuesday, November 29 at 7 p.m. in Clovis Community College Town Hall. (Note: this is a change of venue from the brochure and magnet.) Being in CCC Town Hall will provide our audience both a visual and aural intimacy for a one-of-a-kind musical experience with this quartet.

Carpe Diem String Quartet, in residence at Ohio Wesleyan University, is quickly becoming the premiere American "indie" string quartet. The quartet has earned critical acclaim with innovative programs, electrifying performances, and a passion for audience engagement. They perform the classical string quartet repertoire, but their musical passion has led them down the paths of Gypsy, Tango, Folk, Pop, Rock and Jazz-inspired music. Carpe Diem continues to break boundaries and push the limits of the string quartet by writing, arranging and performing music of all styles while working with artists of diverse genres.

The quartet, violinists Charles Wetherbee and John Ewing, violist Korine Fujiwara and cellist Kristin Ostling, is dedicated to music education and outreach, and regularly performs educational programs specifically designed to relate to students of all ages and establish classical music's relevance to their lives. This past year, Carpe Diem was the only quartet in America chosen to receive a prestigious PNC ArtsAlive Award for their commitment to community engagement and musical education.

Respected by critics across the globe, Carpe Diem String Quartet captures the imagination of audiences and takes them on a journey unlike any string quartet has taken before.
