Dear Volunteer Coordinators,

Volunteers are extraordinary people who make invaluable and critical contributions to improve lives, and strengthen the community by building character and confidence. Although, volunteers have so many intangible gifts making it difficult to put a value amount on the volunteer hour, Annually Independent Sector calculates a New Mexico volunteer hour to be worth $16.07. Hospice of the Sandias is inviting the City of Clovis to join in partnership to provide our volunteers with a commitment of acknowledgement through the Volunteer Recognition Program.

In recognition for all that our volunteers of the community do and in conjunction with Volunteer Appreciation week we want to invite you to participate in our Monthly Volunteer recognition program, which we will kick off in April 2010.

We are asking that you nominate a volunteer for their dedication and outstanding work on the postcard included, please be sure to fill it out completely, address it, and mail the pre-stamped postcard back to us by April 2nd.

Our volunteer recognition committee will read the nominations and then choose a Volunteer of the Month to receive an award, and gift card that would be presented by a prominent political member of the community, and receive a spotlight on the Rooney and Moon morning show.

Although this is only a small part of what we can do to give back to our volunteers who are so precious and vital to our organizations, we believe this to be a wonderful opportunity to showcase those that dedicate their time to volunteering while encouraging others to do the same, and we look forward to your support!

I would be happy to answer any questions you may have and look forward to your partnership in this exciting possibility.

Sincerely,

Katrina Bryant
